

DISCOUNT PERMISSIBLE ON “HRAO” MEMBERSHIP CARDS

1. The Scheme is reciprocal and applicable only to the functioning hotels and restaurants which are individual members of the association.
2. Hotels / Restaurants will allow a discount of 30% to a visiting Hotelier or Restaurateur on the production of a membership card. To avail the discount on hotel accommodation, card holders should make an advance reservation informing the member hotel of their holding HRAO Membership Card. The discount is applicable only on accommodation, food & beverage including liquor.
3. Restaurants including restaurants located in hotels, will allow a discount of 30% on food and beverage, including liquor ordered by a membership card holder. To avail the discount, the card should be presented before placing the order. No discount will, however, be allowed on take away sales of food to card holders. However it will still be allowed even if hotels and restaurants are offering lunch / dinner / breakfast etc., at discounted package rates.
4. The card is non-transferable and can be used only by the person whose signature appears on the reverse of the card. No change in nomination is permissible during course of a year, unless the nominee has severed his connection with the establishment, and the card is returned.
5. A card holder can get discount for a maximum of 10 days in the year at any particular hotel and maximum of 10 visits in the year at any particular restaurant.
6. The card is valid in any of the HRAO member establishments whether local or outstation.
7. In case of hotels the person holding the membership card, his wife and minor children are eligible for the discount. In case of restaurants, including restaurants located in hotels, the discount is allowable not only to the card holder but also to his wife and dependent family members up to a maximum of 6 persons (excluding the card holder).
8. Where 5% commission is paid in respect of a Credit Card, only 25% discount may be allowed on Membership Card.
9. No discount will be allowed on hotel bookings through travel agent.

N.B. : The card should be honored readily, and special courtesy should be shown to the card holder so as to promote goodwill and fraternity among membership of the same industry.

P.S. : The only change our association has made is FHRAI members do not give any discount on liquor but our association does.
